shall not go into effect for twelve months. A majority of the Legislature being in favor of the act, its defeat if desired could not of course have been accomplished by one man. Roanoke, however, could have been excepted from the provisions of this act, and in not having it so done the TIMES believes, as it has said, that Representative Woods made a serious mistake.

The TIMES is willing to give Mr. Woods credit for the belief, which he asserts, that the act works as a benefit to the city by saving its tax-payers the additional tax they would have been required to pay the State under the new assessment, but it is of the opinion that the people of the city would gladly have paid that in order to have allowed Roanoke to have reaped the increased revenue it by a special deposit of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), with the would have had thereby.

The city needs a more efficient sewerage. A place of 16,400, as shown by the census enumeration (laying aside the question as to whether that is all Interventor. we have or not), should not be allowed to depend upon surface drainage, and the money that could have been obtained of all prizes of this drawing. under the new assessment would have produced almost incalculable benefit by being expended in internal improvements.

These expenditures, it is true, can be

THE ROANOKE AND SOUTHERN. There have been a number of rumors current for several days that the securing of the right of way of the Roanoke and Southern railroad into the city was FUQUA & BOAZ being obstructed by the exhorbitant demands for property made by speculators, who had bought up the most It has also been stated that overtures are being made to the road by the people of Salem; and that they have offered | WM, F. BAKER. $200,000, free right of way and terminal facilities if the Roanoke and Southern would come there.

That the people of Roanoke want the Roanoke and Southern railroad; that, as a mass, they appreciate fully the advantages it will give the city, is manifested by the unanimity with Block, South Jefferson Street, which they voted the two subscriptions of $100,000 each to the road.

and again, especially when the last ap propriation was voted, that the city would get the road and that it would not be asked to subscribe an additional dollar to insure its completion. There is no resson to believe either that it

The same public spirit, however, which prompted the voting of the appropriations should be exhibited in giving the road fair and reasonable terms for its right of way and terminal.

The benefits that will accrue to the city by the construction of the road have been frequently pointed out in the Times and are thoroughly understood and appreciated by the citizens generally. Whatever truth there may be in the report that exhorbitant prices for property are being asked the road, OFFICE: Rooms 3 and 4, first floor it ought to be treated fairly as a matter of mutual interest and public policy.
